

ESGI Helps Maximus Hire Top Education Executive

For Immediate Release

Washington, D.C. — Evan Scott Group International, a retained executive search firm specializing in senior-level searches for federal contractors, announced that it has helped Maximus Inc. hire Allison Duquette as President, Education, for the government services provider.

Duquette served as president and chief executive officer for four years of Spectrum K12 School Solutions Inc, where she was responsible for all facets of the rapidly growing software and professional service business in the kindergarten to grade 12 education market. Prior to joining Spectrum K12 School Solutions, Duquette was vice president of product line management and marketing for NCS Learn, a business of NCS Pearson.

Maximus is a leading provider of services and solutions to federal, state and local government. The company provides a variety of solutions to school systems and education organizations, such as a web-enabled, real-time student information management system for administrators, teachers, and parents

“Allison Duquette brings more than 20 years of high-energy, hands-on senior leadership to her new position at Maximus,” said Evan Scott, president and founder of ESGI. “She is exceptionally qualified to lead Maximus’ education business.”
