

ESGI Search Brings Robillard to Agilent Technologies

For Immediate Release

Washington, D.C. — Evan Scott Group International, a retained executive search firm specializing in senior-level searches for federal contractors, announced that it has helped Agilent Technologies Inc. hire Stephen L. Robillard as Vice President of Federal Operations for Agilent.

Robillard comes to Agilent from Alliant Techsystems Inc., where he was a vice president of business development and capture strategy for the maker of advanced weapons and space systems. In this position, he managed, coached and assisted business development professionals and directed field marketing activities in pursuit of new domestic and international business. Prior to Alliant, Robillard served as a manager of business development for Raytheon Company's Communication Systems Division and for Harris Corp.'s Government Communication Systems Division

Robillard also served 15 years in the Wisconsin Army National Guard and Florida Army National Guard.

Agilent is leading manufacturer of scientific instruments, analysis equipment, and laboratory equipment. The company is a technology leader in communications, electronics, life sciences and chemical analysis.

“With nearly 25 years of experience working closely with military and civilian agencies, Mr. Robillard brings in-depth knowledge and expertise to Agilent's federal management team,” said Evan Scott, president and founder of ESGI.
